Welcome to [PROF COUNTRY]

Rowan University's annual homecoming weekend took place from Oct. 18 - 20. This year, the theme was Prof Country. The weekend kicked off with an outdoor homecoming country concert and pep rally on Friday. The concert featured the well-known country artist Uncle Kracker, as well as musicians Liv Devine, Natalie Stovall and Joe Nichols. Saturday began with one of Rowan's oldest traditions, the Homecoming parade. It featured ten country-themed floats, each built by different organizations on campus. Alumni, students, staff and families then attended the Prof Country Fair and enjoyed a variety of food vendors and entertainment including funnel cake, cotton candy, balloon animals, face painting and tailgate activities. At the same time, the Rohrer College of Business held its second annual Homecoming picnic complete with games and prizes. Following the picnic, the Rowan Profs football team triumphed over Wesley College with a close score of 24-17. Homecoming also included a Rowan Rugby match versus East Stroudsburg University and a Brown and Gold Block Party hosted by Barnes & Noble on Rowan Boulevard. The Block Party included live entertainment, music, book signings and food.

Student Health Services, Healthy Campus Initiatives, Counseling & Psychological Services and EMS found a new home at the Wellness Center in Winans Hall next to the Chamberlain Student Center.

A ceremony celebrating the grand re-opening of the John Green Team House. A $4.2 million project, the renovations and additions include more than seven locker rooms, a training room and laundry facilities.

The University proudly inaugurated Dr. Ali A. Houshmand as its seventh president, with close to 900 people in attendance. Few universities have so many presidents in a 90-year history.

Asian Cultural Association

The Asian Cultural Association (ACA) promotes Asian culture as well as diversity through education and awareness to form a better multicultural community at Rowan University. Every meeting consists of workshops and presentations. Each year, Rowan ACA plans trips including attending East Coast Asian American Student Union (ECAASU) conferences. The club's biggest event is the Asian Festival in the spring semester. ACA members plan everything for the event including the layout, decorations, performances and food. Students do not have to be Asian to join; all are welcome.

Athletic Training Club

The Rowan University Athletic Training Club comprises athletic training students in Rowan's CAATE Accredited Athletic Training Education Program. Through the dedication of its members, the club serves the athletic training profession, the athletic training education program and the University as a whole. Club members attend many local, state, regional and national conferences annually and participation in the club helps members become leaders within the athletic training community.

Avant

Avant is Rowan University's student-run literary magazine. Each issue hosts several pieces of poetry, prose, photography and other artwork that spread across a variety of different subjects and media. Hoping to join the artistic forces at Rowan? Avant meets every Thursday from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the Student Center Publication Suite to review student work for each semester's issue. All are welcome to join and participate.

Colleges Against Cancer

Dance Extensions

Dance Extensions is Rowan University's contemporary dance company. Part of Rowan's campus for 30 years, the club helps experienced performers expand their technique and broaden their ideas of dance as art. In order to achieve this, the company creates unique performances and experiences through shows that occur on campus.

Early Childhood Education Club

The Early Childhood Education Club is based mainly upon the Early Childhood Education major. At each meeting, the club discusses topics that will benefit all of the members as educators for when they have their own classrooms. Guest speakers often attend meetings to give insight into the professional environment of educators. The club works with children to help them learn through play and get the best learning experiences possible, while also giving members educational experiences to help them in their future careers as educators.

El Círculo de Español

El Círculo de Español is for individuals who are interested in the Spanish culture and language. Together members coordinate different Spanish experiences through educational meetings. They also include music, food and games to give learning about the Spanish culture a fun twist. They do not focus on one particular group and everyone is welcome. Knowing Spanish is not a requirement.

Engineers Without Borders

Engineers Without Borders (EWB) is an organization that focuses on community-driven development. Students travel to communities to implement technical design solutions for pressing societal needs. Projects include water access and purification, sanitation, infrastructure, bridges and other technical development works. EWB develops real-world engineering experience while encouraging communication skills that make Rowan students well-rounded and culturally-aware.

Management Information System

Public Relations Student Society of America

Formed in 1976, the Anthony J. Fulginiti Chapter of the Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA) is a pre-professional society for students studying public relations or interested in the field of communications. Students learn various networking skills to help advance in the public relations profession, hear from professionals within the industry to gain insight and work on various public relations projects. Not only does PRSSA help students enhance their education and broaden their network, it also helps launch their careers. In its 38-year history, Rowan University's PRSSA has won more than 200 national and regional awards — more than any other chapter in the nation.

Rowan Republican

Rowan Cinema Workshop

Cinema Workshop is Rowan University's student filmmaking club. Cinema Workshop offers students the opportunity to work on film, video and multimedia projects outside of the general classroom experience. Students take skills learned in production classes and apply them to creative work that can either be more personal or larger in scope than what is possible within the confines of a 15-week course of study. After a peer-oriented pitch and approval success, Cinema Workshop provides grants in the form of funds and services through post-production. In addition to production, Cinema Workshop actively holds workshops in which students learn about everything from how to get an internship to how to write a screenplay. Cinema Workshop also provides a link to former members, many of whom are working with professionals in the fields of film and video.

Organizations

RTN also provides video services and a means of communication to the student body at large. Students are given the creative and technical freedom to develop and create their own ideas, in a studio or out-of-studio environment. The Rowan Television Network broadcasts educational and entertainment programs, and is dedicated to serving the community.

Society of Automotive Engineers

The Society of Automotive Engineers encourages hands-on experience to gain knowledge about design, fabrication and the application of engineering theory for real-world challenges. The club's mission is to inspire all interested parties, regardless of technical expertise, to get involved and contribute to facets of the club. Organizations

Alpha Phi Omega

Alpha Phi Omega is a national coeducational service organization founded on the principles of Leadership, Friendship and Service. It provides its members the opportunity to develop leadership skills as they volunteer on their campus, in their community, to the nation, and to the organization. With more than 400,000 members on over 375 campuses, Alpha Phi Omega continues to provide more service on more campuses than any other collegiate service organization.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority is a women's organization that exists to promote high ideals and standards for its members throughout their lives by emphasizing balance among the four aims of intellectual, physical, social and spiritual development. Its national philanthropic partners are the Special Olympics, Girls on the Run, the S. June Smith Center and the Alpha Sigma Alpha foundation. Founded in 1901, Alpha Sigma Alpha is made up of women of poise and purpose who are known for their character and concern for others.

Chi Upsilon Sigma

The members of Chi Upsilon Sigma National Latin Sorority recognize the prejudices and obstacles facing minority women in the community. They dedicate themselves to improving these conditions and working toward the betterment of all women. They have unified themselves through the sisterhood of Corazones Unidos Siempre and through their founders' ideals of open communication and community service, as well as the development of political, educational, cultural and social awareness. They devote themselves to this challenge and believe it can be achieved through hard work, patience and the collective effort to educate, as is exemplified in their motto, "Wisdom Through Education."

Delta Phi Epsilon

Our vision is that we inspire and empower our sisterhood to engage in a lifetime of leadership and service. With a continuing philosophy of faith in the inherent good judgment of the undergraduate membership, Delta Phi Epsilon has remained steadfast throughout its history, forward to the continued growth of a sisterhood which keeps pace with the ever changing nature of the collegiate world.

Each year on March 17, undergraduates and alumnae celebrate Founders Day, honoring the women to whom each chapter of Delta Phi Epsilon is directly indebted for the establishment of our sisterhood. We honor them for the fine ideals and purposes which inspired them. Over three quarters of a century after Delta Phi Epsilon began, there are women who still embrace the beliefs of our founders by sharing sisterhood in their hearts and lives.

A society to "Promote good fellowship among the women students among the various colleges in the country...to create a secret society composed of these women based upon their good moral character, regardless of nationality or creed...to have distinct chapters at various colleges..." with the motto Esse Quam Videri: to be rather than to seem to be.

Letter from the EDITOR

After taking on the position of editor-in-chief of The Image, I had a mission. I wanted to showcase memories from this year in the best way possible. So many great changes are being made at Rowan, and all these changes need to be remembered forever because it helped get to where we are today.

This isn't just a book, it's 168 pages of memories. 168 pages of opportunities. 168 pages of the passion, dreams and goals each student holds. Every one of you reading this should recognize how much of an impact Rowan University had on you. As the University grew, you grew with it. It helped you better yourself and prepare to enter the next chapter of your life with the confidence and ability you need to succeed in all future endeavors.

Without the talent and diversity each student brings to the table, Rowan would never be as successful as it is now. I'm proud and thrilled to have this opportunity to capture the talent of every student who attended the University. This opportunity wouldn't be possible without the help of others, and I want to take the time to thank those who deserve it: Rosie Braude, Emmy Kachel, Gia Gallone, Milahn Cooke, Frank Spitale, Steve Rupinski, Dana Baglivo and Corinthea Harris.

Rosie, thank you for inspiring and helping me along the way and being as organized as I am! You are an excellent adviser and an extraordinary person I'm lucky I can look up to. You guided me when I needed guidance and I am so grateful I had the opportunity to work with you. I could not have done this without you!

Emmy, every moment working with you was a pleasure. You were approachable, friendly and always there to assist me and answer my questions.

Gia, you were my right-hand-man throughout this process. Without your thorough eye and attention to detail, the book would probably contain a lot of mistakes. You offered helpful insight to better the book and I want you to be recognized for all the hard work you provided throughout the year.

Milahn and Frank, thank you for your awesome photography skills. Without you both, the book would most likely be empty.

Steve and Dana, you helped The Image get to where it is today. Without you this wouldn't have been possible.

Lastly, Corinthea. You gave me this opportunity and helped make it happen. You are a great friend and an even greater person. I am going to miss you next year, but I know you'll be off doing bigger and better things.

Congratulations to the Class of 2014, you all should be proud of how far you've come to be where you are now. Also know that this isn't the end of the road, it is only the beginning.

Sincerely,
Courtney Klauber
Editor-in-Chief
